

MILEY ROLLS TO THIRD "EARL HILL MEMORIAL" VICTORY

MIDDLEBOURNE, WV – Jared Miley of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, picked up his second career Ultimate Northeast Super Late Model Series victory and first Ultimate Mid-Ohio Valley Region victory in the "30th Annual Earl Hill Memorial" Saturday at Tyler County Speedway worth $5,000.

Miley passed early race leader Tyler Carpenter of Parkersburg, West Virginia just as the two were entering lap traffic early in the event. After several attempts to overtake Carpenter for the lead early in the event were overcome by Carpenter, traffic is just what the doctor ordered as Miley began to pull away from the field over the rest of the distance.

The event was slowed by just one caution flag for Cody Rogers who slowed to a stop in turn four around the halfway mark. After the yellow, Miley was able to pull away the rest of the distance winning the feature by over a straightaway.

Zack Dohm of Cross Lanes, West Virginia was the hard charger of the event advancing from his ninth starting position to finish in fourth.

Ultimate Northeast and Ultimate Mid-Ohio Valley officials pushed the show along with the threat of weather imminent throughout the day and were able to get the entire show in without a hitch.

The Ultimate Super Late Model Series Northeast Region will be back in action again on Saturday May 26th and Sunday May 27th as the Series will travel to Port Royal, Pennsylvania to Port Royal Speedway for two events. Saturday's event will pay $3,000 to win while Sunday's event will pay $5,000 to win.
