

YODER SOARS TO HOMETOWN VICTORY AT SELINGROVE IN THE SHOWDOWN ON SAND HILL

SELINGROVE, PA - Dylan Yoder of Selinsgrove, Pa., picked up the popular hometown victory earlier tonight at the Selinsgrove Speedway by winning the Showdown on Sand Hill event sanctioned by the Ultimate Northeast Super Late Model Series. The victory for Yoder was worth $3,000.

Yoder passed early race leader and pole sitter Bryan Bernheisel on lap five and led the rest of the 30 lap distance to pick up the victory. The first caution of the event flew at the halfway mark on lap 15. On the restart, Jason Covert jumped into second, but couldn't quite get past Yoder despite some charges on the high side.

With seven laps to go, Jason Covert slowed to a stop while battling for second with Jared Miley. On the restart, Miley made a bid to the outside on Yoder and pulled in front of him in the middle of turns one and two, but Yoder powered back into the lead down the back stretch and would lead the rest of the distance to pick up the win.

Series action continues next Saturday night with a bonus race for the Ultimate Northeast Super Late Model Series as the Ultimate Super Late Model Series sanctions the USA 100 at Virginia Motor Speedway in Jamaica, Va., paying $20,000 to win.
